Overall, till now, how would you describe the impact of the project in your organisation?

3 responses

Bigger, and bigger, we are collecting a big amount of data and materials to work with, and we are experiencing much bigger reach then before.

Survey didn't went very well, not many answers and we struggled reaching the target. However, the local activity went very well and and allowed us to engage our local community.

The project is giving a frame to methods we wanted to implement since longtime.

Any further comments?
